👤 Mohamed Ayman – Team Leader & Creative Director

Developing the main campaign concept

Creating the brand strategy and positioning

Designing the full visual identity (Logo, colors, typography)

Setting the art direction and visual language

Supervising design consistency across all deliverables

Final review and quality control

Preparing and organizing the final presentation

As the team leader, he ensured the campaign maintained a unified visual identity and strong conceptual foundation.

👤 Mohamed Ahmed – Research & Content Strategist

Conducting psychological and behavioral research

Collecting statistics and case studies related to digital addiction

Defining campaign messaging tone and voice

Writing awareness content for posts and print materials

Structuring informational hierarchy for brochures

His role focused on transforming research insights into clear and impactful communication messages.

👤 Menna Shalaby – Social Media Visual Designer

Designing social media post layouts

Creating a unified grid system for campaign content

Developing carousel structures for awareness storytelling

Adapting brand identity across digital platforms

Designing engagement-focused visuals

She ensured that the campaign communicates effectively within digital platforms while maintaining visual consistency.

Kholoud Maged– Print & Publication Designer

Designing awareness posters

Creating outdoor advertising concepts (billboards, roll-ups)

Designing brochures and informational materials

Applying typography principles across print formats

Preparing print-ready production files

Her role focused on translating the campaign message into strong physical visual outputs.

Nour Mohamed – Brand Applications Designer

Designing brand mockups and real-life applications

Creating merchandise concepts (tote bags, notebooks, stickers)

Developing environmental branding concepts

Applying identity system across different touchpoints

Ensuring visual consistency in brand extensions

She worked on expanding the brand into tangible and realistic applications.

Radwa Ramadan – UI/UX Designer (Conceptual Awareness Platform)

Designing the awareness microsite concept

Creating user journey and wireframes

Structuring content flow for educational experience

Designing UI layout aligned with brand identity

Presenting an interactive solution for awareness engagement

Her role focused on designing a digital experience that supports behavioral change and awareness.